CHEEKY HOBOS.

Made a Lodging House of a Delano School Building.

Last night several hobos made lodgings in a room of the Delano public school building. They kept the fire going and made themselves otherwise comfortable and quite a home. This morning Principal Schroppe discovered them asleep when he went through the building to see that everything was in readiness for the opening of the schools. The principal was somewhat startled by the discovery and hurried from the building to secure a constable, leaving his overcoat behind. When the principal and officer returned they found the tramps had fled, taking the former's overcoat with them.

A Wise Investment.

George J. Goldsmith, the prominent clothing merchant of Pottsville, who died on Friday last of pneumonia, was a member of the Royal Arcanum. This order pays $5,000 in the event of death and as it has never defaulted on any claim in the 22 years of its existence, has abundantly proved its reliability, and the fact that it now has nearly 200,000 members shows that it has the confidence of the public.

For ten days Klonidike Cough Cure, 15 cts. City Drug Store, 107 S. Main St. 1-18-104

Husband Prosecuted.

Mrs. Maud Boyle, of East Coal street, this morning presented her husband, Charles Edward Boyle, with a desertion, non-support, cruelty and adultery. It is alleged the defendant drove his wife from the home and proceeded to sell the furniture. Justice Shoemaker committed Boyle in default of $400 bail. The parties moved to town recently from Shamokin.

Hospital Admissions.

Andrew Hutznock, of Mores, has been admitted to the Miners' hospital for treatment of his left hand. When Hutznock was chopping wood about two weeks ago a rusty nail penetrated the palm of the hand and blood poisoning set in. Amputation may follow.

John Anasook, a miner at the Buck Mountain colliery, was admitted with his right hand badly injured, having been crushed between the bumpers of cars.

Made Station Agent.

Held Up by Footpads. Holdups are reported almost daily from many of the neighboring towns and patches. The latest occurred last night at New Boston, where a Pole was halted by two footpads, one held him while the other rifled his pockets of a small amount of money. They beat him because the amount was disappointing to them.

The Burns Banquet.

Quite a few of our people have been favored with invitations to attend the banquet in honor of the birthday of Robert Burns, Scotland's national poet, at Union hall, Pottsville, on Wednesday evening, January 25th, and the indications are that Shenandoah will be well represented. It is expected there will be no less than five hundred guests.

QUAY LOSES ONE VOTE!

Result of the Joint Session at Harrisburg at Noon To-day.

THE ANTI-QUAY CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

Both Jenks and Dalsell Increase Their Vote Over That of Yesterday—The Senator Senator Fourteen Votes Short of Election.

Special to Evening Herald.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—The lines have been tightly drawn between the contending forces in the Senatorial contest, and the critical stage has been reached. The arbitrary rulings of Lieutenant-Governor Gobin in yesterday's joint session is the cause. The showstool of the Quay leaders freely admit that the Senator's chances have been injured by yesterday's proceedings. Senator Loeck, of Schuylkill county, did not attend the indignation meeting last evening, neither did he sign the resolutions. The Democratic members of the House from that county—Anderson, Guenther, Haug, O'Brien and Naecker, were present. Guenther, of the Second district, was absent. The latter is a great admirer of the Beaver statesman.

WILL LAY SCHEME.

David Martin and "Dick" Flinn, the two anti-Quay leaders, are credited with perfecting the scheme which was sprung in the joint session yesterday, and is said to have an ultimate result the ousting of Gobin as the presiding officer, and to bring the Democrats and the Republicans "insurgents" into closer fellowship. Martin's fertile brain hatched it, and after explaining details at a late conference of the anti-Quays it was agreed to. Some of the best lawyers in the state say the Lieutenant-Governor has no inherent rights to preside over the joint sessions, and that the members can elect their own presiding officer and adopt rules governing their deliberations. If the anti-Quay scheme goes through Ward E. Bliss will reside in place of Gobin, and then look out for fun, and lots of it.

David Martin said today that six members from Philadelphia now voting for Quay would desert him when requested to do so by the Philadelphia leader.

THE QUAY ARREST.

J. W. Lang, the stenographer at the anti-Quay headquarters, was arrested by an officer of the Barring and Mcweeney detective agency, as a suspicious person. His papers were taken from him, and among them was the pledge which was signed by the anti-Cameron legislators in the fight of 1881. Notice was served on the detective agency that if the pledge was not returned they would be prosecuted for theft.

TO-DAY'S JOINT SESSION.

The two branches of the Legislature again met in joint session at noon to-day, and the interest on the result was more intense than at any time since the struggle began. The chamber was packed with interested spectators. Senator Quay's friends anticipated the loss of two votes today. Representatives Stubbs and Scott, of Philadelphia, both Martin men, hinted last night that they would vote to-day for some candidate other than Senator Quay. The result, however, shows that the latter lost but one vote. The result in joint ballot was as follows:

Today's	Yesterday's	Vote	Vote
Quay	111	112
Jenks	85	84
Dalsell	17	15
Senators	9	9
C. W. Stone	8	8
Huff	3	3
Scattering	13	14
Total	248	248

Those absent or not voted were Senators Brown and Higgins, and Representatives Brophy and Weaver. The latter is a Republican from Lancaster and Brophy is a Democrat who refused to vote yesterday. He is from Allegheny county.

Senator Quay loses one vote and Jenks gains one by the presence of a Democratic member who was absent yesterday. Dalsell gains two votes and C. W. Stone drops one. The others receive the same.

There is no break in the Democratic column, and the Republican "insurgents" present a solid front. After the vote was announced the anti-Quay leaders confidently predicted that there would be a much larger assertion from the Quay ranks to-morrow, and would continue until the Beaver statesman was forced out of the fight. If that is accomplished there is no doubt but that Quay will be in a position to name his successor.

THAT INDIGNATION MEETING.

The anti-Quay Republicans and Democrats were hurriedly called together after the joint conference adjourned by Senator William Flinn, chairman of the anti-Quay organization in the general assembly. Representative Ward R. Bliss, of Delaware, was chosen chairman and Representatives Thomas J. Ford of Allegheny and George R. Dixon of Elk were chosen secretaries.

A roll call showed 135 members and senators present. Of these five Republicans who voted for Senator Quay participated in the meeting, and indicated their sympathy with the movement. They were Representatives Hirsch and Yates of Philadelphia, Mackey of Lackawanna, Nesbit of Allegheny and Baldwin of Delaware. A committee of seven was appointed to prepare a series of resolutions to be submitted to an adjourned meeting which was held last night in the hall of the house of representatives. This committee consisted of Senators Flinn of Allegheny, Sprout of Delaware (Rep.), Helmle of Centre (Dem.), Representatives Young of Tioga, Koonce of Schuylkill (Dem.), Dixon of Elk and Fow of Philadelphia (Dem.).

The hall of the house was crowded with legislators and politicians last evening when the meeting was called to order by Chairman Bliss. He stated the purpose of the meeting was to hear the report of the committee, and that if being an adjourned meeting no roll would be called. Mr. Flinn presented the report, and Mr. Fow of Philadelphia, read it. The report first gives the rules which were presented to govern the action of the joint assembly, and then proceeds:

WHEREAS, the said presiding officer refused to entertain said resolution and failed to take the right to exercise the rules for its government not incompatible with the constitution and laws of the commonwealth is inherent in every deliberative assembly, and in a matter of the highest privilege, and

Whereas, the said presiding officer refused to entertain an appeal from said ruling, although promptly and properly made, and

Whereas, subsequently at the same session of the joint assembly the said presiding officer refused to entertain a call for the yeas and nays upon a motion to adjourn, in violation of the rules of both houses and of the precedents established in former joint assemblies, although the same was demanded by a large number of the members present before the chair had announced the decision of the assembly upon said motion to adjourn, and summarily ruled against the manifest will of a clear majority of the joint assembly (as the yeas and nays well knew) that the said joint assembly then stood adjourned.

Resolved, That the said rulings upon the part of said presiding officer were revolutionary in character, a clear violation of the right of the members of said joint assembly, a menace to the orderly conduct of its business and deserve the condemnation of every law-abiding citizen.

Resolved, That the said joint assembly has the undoubted right to adopt rules to govern its own procedure and to have a record made of yeas and nays of the votes of its members upon any orderly proposition submitted for the decision of the assembly.

Resolved, That it is the further undoubted right of the said joint assembly, under the constitution and laws of the commonwealth, to organize itself by the election of a presiding officer, none being provided for by its charter, and although the said joint assembly acquiesced in the action of the lieutenant-governor in presiding over its deliberations, although no part of his official right or function, nevertheless we assert the inherent power of the said joint assembly, if necessary shall at any time require to elect a presiding officer, and to change him at pleasure.

The resolutions are signed by 19 senators and 130 representatives.

DEMOCRATS JOIN THE ANTI-QUAY.

In explaining the resolutions Mr. Flinn said there was no law or constitutional mandate that allows the lieutenant-governor to preside at a joint assembly of the senate and house to elect a United States senator; it was simply a matter of courtesy.

General Koonce, of Somerset, argued that the lieutenant-governor had no more right to preside over the joint assembly than one of the page boys on the floor, except as a courtesy.

Representative Hasson, of Venango, said his Democratic colleagues felt it was their duty to aid the independent Republicans in repelling the encroachments upon their privileges.

A motion was offered by Senator Martin, of Philadelphia, and adopted, that the committee be continued, with power to call the independent Republicans and Democrats together any time the necessity arises.

NEW STATE OFFICIALS.

Messrs. Griest, Elkin and Durham confirmed by the Senate.

Harrisburg, Jan. 19.—The senate met last evening to receive messages from the governor. The secretary Gray presented communications from the governor in which he announced that he had appointed Israel W. Durham, of Philadelphia, insurance commissioner, to succeed James H. Lambert, and Thomas J. Stewart, of Montgomery county, to succeed himself as attorney-general.

The senate unanimously confirmed these appointments. Senator David Martin was present, but refrained from voting. At yesterday morning's session of the senate W. W. Griest was confirmed as secretary of the commonwealth and John P. Elkin as attorney-general.

Governor Stone yesterday forenoon requested the resignation of Colonel Lambert, commissioner of insurance. As no reason was assigned by the executive for the request and the term for which Colonel Lambert was appointed does not expire until 1900, he declined to resign. The governor did not reply to Colonel Lambert's letter of declination, but sent in the name of Mr. Durham.

An Unfortunate Soldier.

Edward Burke, of Shamokin, a private in Co. F, 34th Mich. Vol., stationed at Lansing, Mich., tells a story of misfortune to the Mahanoy City police. He says he was robbed at Ashland yesterday of his overcoat, which contained seven dollars in cash and his fur-traveling papers. He appears to be in distress over the loss, but he has not yet been able to get the coat back.

A peculiar feature of the case is that Burke makes his complaint to the Mahanoy City police and the Ashland authorities say they have not heard of the affair.

Held For Threats.

Philip Anderson was arraigned before Justice Toomey this afternoon, charged by Joseph Rittenhouse with threats and carrying concealed deadly weapons. When Constable Gibbon arrested Anderson he found on his person a revolver and several cartridges. The defendant was sent to jail in default of $500 bail. Anderson formerly lived on West Coal street. He has been absent from town for some time and, during his absence, his wife moved to a house on East Centre street. Rittenhouse is a boarder there and Anderson is moved by a spirit of jealousy.

It will be well for all persons having properties to rent to remember that all leases of property must have a United States government revenue stamp attached. Those for one year must have a 25-cent stamp; for two or three years a 50-cent stamp; and for over three years a stamp costing $1. If necessary, a stamp is used, then each receipt for rent must bear a stamp. This is imperative. Failure to comply with the law invites heavy penalties.

Fell Down a Chaise.

Santo Maskawitz, while engaged in repairing a chaise at the Park colliery, Trenton to-day, lost his balance and fell to the bottom sustaining painful lacerations of the body.

BOROUGH POLITICS!

The Primaries of the Democratic Party Being Held.

SOME CONTESTS ARE SPIRITED.

The High Constableness the Bone of Most Contentions on the Borough Ticket. Lively Tiffs in the Fourth and Fifth Wards.

The Democratic voters of the borough in accordance with the call issued by the Standing Committee, held their primaries this afternoon between the hours of three and eight p. m. In all of the wards, with the exception of the Second and Third, there are spirited contests which will result in lead feeling between the contending forces after the dust and wounded have been cleared from the battle field. At four o'clock this afternoon it was too early to predict the result in either ward.

There are two borough offices to be filled this year—High Constable and Borough Auditor. For the former position Edward Devers, the present incumbent, Fenton Court John McFaris, Michael Chiff and Frank King are candidates and each is working hard for success. For Borough Auditor the only announced candidates are M. G. Warm and Martin F. Maher. There are said to be other candidates for this office, at least one of them who has not the courage to face the people and ask for a nomination.

There is but one contest in the First ward, and that is for Council. Martin Lally is a candidate and is opposed by Thomas J. Tracy. This will be a lively contest. Constable Gibben and School Director Sullivan will have no opposition for re-election.

The only contest in the Second and Third wards is for conferees. The Democrats will not select ward tickets at this time, but will await the result of the Citizens primaries. Quite a number of patriots are anxious to serve the people of the Fourth ward. The greatest interest, however, is centered in the Councilmanic fight. Conrad Englert is a candidate for re-election, and is opposed by ex-Councilman Patrick Kearns, of Turkey Run, and Martin Dorman. For School Director the candidates to succeed Senator Higgins are John F. Egan and Michael Kerigan. In this contest a pretty game of politics is being played the result of which will have some bearing on the outcome of the School Board next June. Luke Walsh and Patrick Flaherty are the only candidates for Constable.

The battle royal, however, is being waged in the Fifth ward. There is a small array of candidates, but the only ones for Council are James M. Dougherty, Richard McHale and Councilman Edward Murphy, who seeks a renomination. Many pick the latter as a winner, as he is believed to have the party workers with him. School Director Devitt has the "right of his life" on hand, and is opposed by Martin P. McGuire. The latter is very strong in that balliwick and as he is very popular will, likely land.

The conferees elected to-day will meet at the Council chamber on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of naming the nominees for High Constable and Borough Auditor.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Those who desire to be voted for at the Citizens primaries must present their names and assessment to the secretary of the committee, Thomas Dove, Jr., not later than next Saturday evening.

Editor Zerby, of the Republican, evidently doesn't know where he is at in the Senatorial contest.

The people have no use for dark lantern politicians.

All the retiring members of Council are candidates for re-election.

The Citizens primary elections will be held next Thursday.

Girardville Republicans have adopted the Crawford county system.

It would, indeed, prove quite a novelty in the next campaign should County Chairman Moyer have all his stationery embossed with an "Eagle Eye."

The primaries of the Citizens party of Delano were held last night and resulted as follows: Supervisor, John M. Schlier; Treasurer, George Hoffman; Constable, Simon Arner; Township Clerk, H. V. Perry; School Directors—3 years, H. C. Engle and August Hoeger; 1 year, Martin Neeb; Inspectors, Joseph Hanson, Jr., and Josiah Shaefer. As but one ticket is put in the field at the Delano Spring elections, the nominations are as good as elections.

Hospital Appropriations.

The State Board of Charities has recommended a total appropriation of $7,841,402.04 for state charities, for the consideration of the present legislature. The Miners' hospital at Fountain Springs asked for $101,515 for the two years, $20,000 of which was for the erection of a new ward. The Board of Charities has recommended $1,250 more than the hospital trustees ask for. The Pottsville hospital will receive $25,000—$5,000 less than last year, and the Children's Home will probably get the same amount as two years ago—$1,500.

Bishop Talbot's Visit.

The Right Reverend Ethebert Talbot, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of the diocese of Central Pennsylvania, has notified the clergy of his intention to visit St. Paul's Mission, Girardville on Tuesday, February 7th; St. John's Memorial church, Ashland, Wednesday, February 8th; and the Church of the Holy Trinity, Centreville, on Thursday, February 9.
